

The Ghost

Superheist

Everytime I hear u breathe selfish I don't want 2 fall in again

Everytime I seem 2 lookback I revert 2 times I wish that hadn't been

Every ounce and piece of respect I gave U spatout!

U sent me in a violent spin But here I am

U say get away I can't stand the site of u anyday

I taste your bitter embrace Suffocate in total disgrace

Just when I really thought the worst

Was finally over and then

Somehow a kick 2 the head Made me realise

I'm just a ghost again

It's only years of grief and spite It's so damn clear it's not alright

I gave my goodbyes today because I've really Learnt 2 walk away

Satisfaction I've rolled into a tidy little drug affair

Abbreviate my jealous fits cause I don't care

U send me in a violent spin But here I am

Why did u turn around on me?

I really haven't got a clue I thought I kinda knew u better Tha n u make me wanna do I've seen the bottom now I face the top

And you're the back of me U make me sick U make me volatile

It's all your gonna B!
