

Disposable Lies

Superman Is Dead

However much you want to show that
You keep me inside and what you really care
Have a close look deep into your flame
Time is running out, nothing to hide away

**

I know we're both all right
It's time to go, start running around
Do it faster than I write
Leave it all behind, all the things we've burnt
Cruising down the memory

It's time to go, start running around
Do it faster than I write
Since I don't know what the last
Heaven's got it all

Picking up the way back to get home
It's the hardest thing that we think all night
Anything could be the adventure
It's all growing and beyond the tragedy

Since I don't know what the last
Since I don't know what the lies
Hell! I don't know what the nice
Heaven's got it all
