

Blow You Away

Supersuckers

Now, I've been taken for way too long
And I had my share of broken hearts
I've been mistaken and I've really been wronged
Now it's tearing me apart

I've got a heart so full of love
It's gonna blow you away
Tried to resist it but you'll take it anyway
And I know it'll blow you away

I got this thing, it's a thing about you
And how you're driving me insane, yeah
Don't wanna cry but what else can I do
Guess I'll just drink it in the pain

I've got a heart so full of love
It's gonna blow you away
Tried to resist it but you take it anyway
And I know it'll blow you away

If you could look inside my soul
Then you could see the love I hold
I'm not the kind of guy who says this everyday
I just want to blow you away, alright now

I've got a heart so full of love
It's gonna blow you away
Tried to resist it but you'll take it anyway
And I know it'll blow you away
Yeah, I just want to blow you away
Oh, I just want to blow you away
