

Just a Normal Day

Supertramp

Oo, woke up crying
With a break of dawning;
I looked out at the sky.
The air was still,
Yet all the leaves were falling,
Can you tell me why?
Well I just don't know the reason,
I don't know what to say;
It just seems a normal day.
And I've got to live my own life;
I just can't spare the time,
'Cause you've got strange things on your mind.

Well, I just feel
That ev'ry minute's wasted;
My life is unreal.
And anyway,
I guess I'm, I'm just not rated,
Leastwise, that's how I feel.
Well I just don't know the reason,
I don't know what to say;
It just seems a normal day.
And I've got to live my own life;
I just can't spare the time,
You've got strange things on your mind.

I eat a lot,
Sleep a lot,
Passing the time of day;
Maybe I'll find my way.
Who am I kidding?
Yes, it's just myself.
