

Summer Romance

Supertramp

In the middle of our summer romance
He walked up to her and he asked her to dance
I could see the old lovelight in her eyes
See the lovelight in her eyes
It took a while to say
How's your new love babe?

My heart was beating with a rage like thunder
And when I saw him I began to wonder
I could see the old lovelight in his eyes
See the lovelight in his eyes
It took a while to say
How's your new love babe?

Well in the middle of our summer romance
He walked up to her and he said, please give me another chance
I could see the old lovelight in her eyes
See the lovelight in her eyes
It took a while to say
How's your new love babe
Yes it did
Took a while to say
How's your new love babe
Ah yeah
Took a while to say
How's your new love babe
