

Happy Again

Support Lesbiens

Justify, justified, I'm in a fool's paradise
Mystify, mystified, I'm counting on memory days
Till I'm bent down on my knees, frown on the day
Taken by fate's wings

What have you left me to feel
Oh we did have such plans
Take me down, could it heal
Tell me now will you stay
And I'll be happy again

Steffy you know, life is not all caviar everyday
Steffy you flow, softly in the cameo of memory days
Till you can marry your prince, crowned all the day
Gotta embrace this

What have you left me to feel
Oh we did have such plans
Take me down, could it heal
Tell me now will you stay
I saw you laughing and ...
Still some things are so low inside of me
Hope, that there's still something so low inside of me
I see you again

Steffy you flow, softly in the cameo of memory days
Till you can marry your prince, crowned all the day
Gotta embrace this

What have you left me to feel
Oh we did have such plans
Take me down, could it heal
Tell me now will you stay
And I'll be happy again
