

Stepped in the room
and fall into graveyard, sneak but crashing
If that should be my first time,
I'm setting it over Then all of sudden the teach comes, and now we're standing Why does it have to be me, why me standing boy
'Cause u were nodding,
my pope 'Cause u were nodding, then my head stays low
'Cause u were nodding,
then I hope 'Cause u were nodding, then my self stays low

Telling me all the things, I will see rainbows, Telling me all about frequency. You are now Telling me all about anything, lame son,
Telling me all about feeling free

'Cause u were nodding, my pope
'Cause u were nodding, then my head stays low
'Cause u were nodding, then I hope
'Cause u were nodding, then my self stays low
'Cause u were nodding, then I hope, pick anybody
'Cause u were nodding, then my head stays low
'Cause u were nodding, then I hope, pick anybody
'Cause u were nodding, then my self stays low

Telling me all the things,
I will see rainbows,
Telling me all about frequency.
You are now
Telling me all about anything,
Lame son,
Telling me all about feeling free
