

On my line

Support Lesbiens

Sitting in the water crying. Living in the world of crime.
Talking 'bout the world I see. You gotta breathe and all I have felt.
Out of me it's all corrupted. It's kind of rock and then rolling
As the government grooving. I'm wondering what is next.
Sitting...felt.

Living in a bottom line. Living on my line.

R: Living in... (2x)

Of course I'm looking for a world with a democracy.
As well as looking for a world without bureaucracy.
Just if they'd show a hint of merkness.
It would feel like cooling breeze.
I told my baby that it always matter what he does.
Also told him 'bout my tricks of being better buzzed.
It's just so good to know he'll change it if we only let him li ve.
and all I have felt.

R: Living in...

Paragraphs, autographs. Basic living of all the trikes.
Undestroyed hollow race unjustified encoded raids.
This is a golden time for a change. Let the sound in and off my head.
Put a roses on my grave when I'm dead. Our children will find t heir way.
