

Please Look At Me

Support Lesbiens

1. The game is arranged, four o'clock just waiting for tha dawn, the blindin' summer sun shines, wish, never to be the same, (never to be the same), all the lives and living I've lived, all the games one loses and wins, therefore we will feel alone,

therefore we will sing these words.

R: /: Please look at me,
please look and see,
please look and breathe slowly everything's just gonna be fine. :/

2. Chance of rain, the story fades out into the past, the sun is up, but that will never last, wish, don't want to be the same (don't want to be the same), the memories we cried we laghed, never gonna be those times again,
therefore we will feel alone,
therefore we will sing these words.

R: /: Please look at me,
please look and see,
please look and breathe slowly,
