

Reason Coming

Support Lesbiens

I know your face
I've known because it's been there for days
I know your soul
I've known 'cause it could never be sold
She's getting into something
It's feelings we all know
And her heart's saying no

Reason coming
Someone that you call up
That should see
That you need
Reason coming
Suddenly you wake up
You can see
That you're free

You know your faith
Can you blame it for the rest of your ways
You know your truth
That your love will end up shining on through
She's getting into something
It's feelings we all know
She's getting into something
And her heart's saying no

Reason coming
Someone that you call up
That should see
That you need
Reason coming
Suddenly you wake up
You can see
That you're free

By now you have to know
That it comes at you in ebb and flow
Even though you disagree
In the end it's love that brings you back to me
Reason coming
Someone that you call up
That should see
That you need
Reason coming
Suddenly you wake up
You can see
That you're free
