No Farewells

Supreme Majesty

From my dark past it came, the evil Possessing my mind Forbidden desires, against her A will to kill

Struggling for her Her life in my hands Fighting the shadows, I believe There's no turning back, no turning back

No more remorse No more dead ends This is my goodbye to you, my beloved

Time to part our ways Why the sadness in your eyes No farewells now We will meet beyond the skies

I left her in tears and sadness To fight for her life The key I possess, to save her A knife in my heart

Struggling for her Her life in my hands Fighting the shadows, I believe There's no turning back, no turning back

Time to part our ways Why the sadness in your eyes No farewells now We will meet beyond the skies Time to part our ways Why the sadness in your eyes No farewells now We will meet beyond the skies
