

Say Yes To Me

Surfer Blood

Waiting for the moon to blow
Inside your window
Say yes or no
Im feelin
The plotline shifting
The cards will shuffle
Now brace in malice well on everyone

Ohhh Say yes to me, say yes to me
I love you dearly, so let me see
With all weve been through, yeah im still here
Im true blue

There was a time you sang the words all wrong
To every song...however wrong...woah
Your biting your tongue now
Your voice restraining
This ship is dark its sails are falling flat

Ohhh Say yes to me, say yes to me
I love you dearly, so let me see
The girl i knew, is still true blue
Im true blue

Once i lived my life(i lived my life)
For people all around me
Filled myself with doubts(myself with doubts)
Now we dont have to say were sorry(noooo)

Noone else can lick their wound
The way i do, when im with you, uh-huh
When i say that im true blue
I hope you know, that its all true, oh-woh

Ohhh Say yes to me, say yes to me
I love you dearly, so let me see
The girl i knew, is still true blue
Im true blue

Ah--ahh--ahhh-ahh--ahh-ahh x2
