

The One That Really Matters

Survivor

I know your mind like the back of my hand,
A race that I ran before,
Are you so blind that you'd turn your back
On love and slam the door,
If you're searching for something more,
Have a good time,
But if you'd follow your heart,
You're gonna find that I'm...

The one, the one,
The one that really matters,
The one that really cares,
The one, when your whole world is shattered,
Snap your fingers and I'll be there.

There's someone new,
He's your brand new toy,
You could break that poor boy in two,
If that's your style,
I should have known from the start,
This heart wants no part of you,
But if you're still the same girl I knew,
All in good time,
You're gonna follow your heart,
And you're gonna find I'm still...

The one, the one,
The one that really matters,
The one that really cares,
The one, when your whole world is shattered,
Snap your fingers and I'll be there.
