

Alone

Susan Tedeschi

Been sitting around here baby thinking about our last long talk Been sitting here at this table at your favorite restaurant
Been hoping I could meet you here so that I could make this perfectly clear That all I do is think about you since you went and left me on my own

I'm so alone, ohhhh I'm so lonely baby and I need to say that I know I was wrong, ohhhh and I'm asking you to come back home
Don't want to be here alone

Your sweet body baby, tears are streaming down my face, yeah
go on and make your mind up-your mind up I ain't got no where to be right now, baby But loving you's a long, long way from here and all I ask of you my dear Is maybe you would reconsider all the love you've missed since you've been gone

I'm so alone, ohhh I'm so lonely baby, and I need to say that I know I was wrong, I was so wrong And I'm asking you to come back home, don't want to be here alone

I know I was the first to say good-bye, I was a fool baby
Look at these tears in my eyes

And if loving you's a long, long way from here, then all I ask of you my dear
Is maybe you would reconsider all the love you've
missed since you've been gone

I'm so alone
