

Found Someone New

Susan Tedeschi

Tired of being alone
Waitin' on-a you to phone me
It's four in the morning and I'm cold
There ain't no one to hold me

I know that it's true
I found someone new
No, it's not alright
But I won't give up this fight

'Cause I'm tired of being lonely
Thinking its me that been wrong
Know I love you today
Oh, but I don't love you in that way
Try to make a new start
'Cause you're running with my heart

I know that it's true
I found someone new
No, it's not alright
But I won't give up this fight

I know that it's true
I found someone new
No, it's not alright
But I won't give up, oh, I won't, I won't, I won't, I won't give up this fight
I know that it's true
I found someone new

But I'm tired of being lonely
Thinking its me that been wrong
Darlin', I'm the only one
Who's been strong, oh, been so strong
