Leave me alone, I need to be on my own Tired of you thinkin' you're right telling me I'm always wrong. I don't know but one thing's for sure The sooner I see you walkin' out that door The better I'll be Oh, the better I'll be So, stop bringin' me down You can't find somethin' nice to say Don't say it at all Let me make my own mistakes I'll beat your love The hard way, oh the hard way Oh the hard way I know it sounds funny but I know you just can't help yourself Cause in your mind you just can't stand by and let me talk How can you tell me all the ins and outs You don't know where I've been or what I'm all about Or what I'm feelin I've got to live to believe yeah So So, stop bringin' me down You can't find somethin' nice to say Don't say it at all Let me make my own mistakes I'll beat your love The hard way, oh the hard way You can tell me all the ins and outs You don't know where I've been or what I'm all about Or what I'm feelin' I've got to live to believe yeah So, stop bringin' me down You can't find somethin' nice to say Don't say it at all Let me make my own mistakes I'll beat your love The hard way, oh the hard way So, stop bringin' me down You can't find somethin' nice to say Don't say it at all Let me make my own mistakes I'll beat your love The hard way, oh the hard way Oh yeah, I want somebody who understands.. Oh I've got to learn the hard way
