

Looking For Answers

Susan Tedeschi

How many times must I sit here and tell you goodbye
How many times must I sit alone and cry
How many times must I ask mercy on me
How many times must I beg to be free

Well, I'm looking for answers
Looking for answers that nobody knows
Well, I'm looking for answers
Looking for answers that nobody knows
Well, I'm looking for answers from above
Not from below

How many times must I learn to live
How many times must I learn to love to give
How many times must I get down on my knees to pray
How many times must I pray did you say

Well, I'm looking for answers
Looking for answers that nobody knows
Well, I'm looking for answers
Looking for answers that nobody knows
Well, I'm looking for answers from above
Not from below

Lord, I love you in so many ways
Lord, I love you each and every day
But now is the time when I must ask you why
Why must we live, and why must we die

Well, I'm looking for answers
Looking for answers that nobody knows
Said I'm looking for answers
Looking for answers that nobody knows
Well, I'm looking for answers from above
Not from below
