

Share Your Love With Me

Susan Tedeschi

It's an evil wind that blows no good
And it's a sad heart, that won't love like I know it should Oh how lonesome you must be
Tell you it would be a shame
If you don't share some of your love with me

Oh, it's a heartache, when love is gone
But it's bad, and even sadder, when it's not returned
Oh, and there is no other, no other love, if you won't see
Oh, it would be a shame if you don't share some of your love with me

I can't help it, if he is gone
I've got to try to forget him, because I've got to live on

And it's such a sweet thing, to love someone
But it's bad, and even sadder, when it's not returned
And oh, I said, how lonesome, oh how lonesome, you've got to be, oh you must be, and if you know
Oh, it would be a shame if you don't share your love with me, darling
