

All I Need

Susanna Hoffs

Honey you know I love you
Long ago you passed the test
I can't seem to figure out
Why I deserve the best of your love

At first I was overwhelmed
Running for the hills
Then a kind of stillness overtook my stubborn will
I fell into

Now I say why ask questions
When you've had your fill?

Why look to the valley
When you can see the ocean from the hill?

Climbing high to reach you
Trying hard as I can
If I don't quite make it up
I know you'll understand
And pull me in

Now I say why ask questions
When you've had your fill?

Why look to the valley
When you can see the ocean from the hill?

And the view from up here
I can see now so clear
For so long I tried to be
Now all I need I see
All I need I see
All I need
