

Knight Of Noir

Susanne Sundfør

I'm on a road,
I'm on a road and I can't go back, go back
A city door, the mausoleum when she invited me in Gave me a lie
Smoke through my lungs and blew me a kiss through my window

I used to be,
I used to be the only good guy left in town
She hypnotized,
She hypnotized an army of private eyes
And I wanna be
The one to see what she hides underneath her coat
Underneath her coat

I can't go back again and lock the door
In the dead of night I hear her call out for more

I am a slave,
I am a slave of the moonlight
I am a knight of noir

A thousand men,
A thousand men have fallen for her wide-eyed
A thousand anchors,
A thousand anchors couldn't hold back the ship
And all her lovers
Yes, all her lovers they will sleep for ever and ever, and ever

I can't go back again and lock the door
In the dead of night I hear her call out for more

I wanna be stung by the stars!
I gave her my soul and my heart!
I am a slave
Sweet Selena, I am your knight of noir

No, I can't go back again and lock the door
In the dead of night I hear her call out for more and more

I wanna be stung by the stars!
I gave her my soul and my heart!

I am a slave, oh
Sweet Selena I am your knight of noir
