

Lullaby

Susanne Sundfør

Hush my baby
Little darling
Silver dreams are
Golden in the morning

Dreams are velvet
Sew them on the evening sky

Thread of hope with Diamond pearls on
Sew them on the velvet sky
So you can try them on

In your dreams where
Everything you wish will come true

Climb the stars and
Make a journey
Some will lift you higher up
Some will burn up right before your eyes
Some will take you to another galaxy
