

Awfully Sinister

Suspiria

Seeming, hoping that some wickedness
Might catch my eye
It's almost wilfully pushing at these
Fragile sympathies of mine
But in honesty, no matter how -
Oh, all those waking hours
Wasted in that fight
The time to care for you
I just can't find
Awfully sinister
You are so awfully sinister
Baby, get thee behind me
You know that you are, oh so -
Awfully sinister
You are so awfully sinister
Baby get thee behind me
You know that you are,
Oh so -
Almost painfully, severely pressed
We might almost begin to love you
Teach me thoroughly and
I might even worship and adore you
But in honesty, however many hours
You beat me searching for complicity
That interest you crave seems quite.....
Awfully sinister
You are so awfully sinister
Baby, get thee behind me
You know that you are, oh so -
Awfully sinister
You are so awfully sinister
Baby, get thee behind me
You know that you are, oh so -
Seeming, hoping that some wickedness
Might catch my eye
Oh how you stalk
And you gesture
It's relentless
But now honestly, no matter how
Despite assault
The time to care for you
I just can't..... Awfully sinister
You are so awfully sinister
Baby, get thee behind me
You know that you are, oh so -
Awfully sinister
You know that you are, oh so -
