

The City Under Sands

Suspyre

The lift of the Gods
Left by weary souls
A phantasm held in words to unfold
Death in black clouds
The dark armor of the warriors stand

Fall by deceit of the child
Sons of the damned
Sadly the man's unaware
Of victory in hands

Kings of the servants
God hath the man
Black nights have come
To the city under sands

(City under sands... forever lost in sands...)

The pain won't fade
Evil the friend
In wonderment a mother cries for end
This young man
Magnificent
Warrior of light, come set us free

Fall by deceit of the child
Sons of the damned
Sadly the man's unaware
Of victory in hands

Kings of the servants
God hath the man
Black nights have come
To the city under sands

Kings of the servants
God hath the man
Black nights have come
To the city under sands
