Ego in the Night

Suzi Quatro

I saw you walking down the street you were new My heart it nearly skipped a beat and I knew You were not the lovin' kind - too cool And I curse the you were mine - so cruel

He was an ego in the night A perfect plastic coated knight Wherever he goes he's so right He was an ego in the night In the night

And when I looked into your eyes - like ice I was tryin' to socialise - being nice Promises of paradise sounded good Trust me to realise it's no good

He was an ego in the night
A perfect plastic coated knight
Wherever he goes he's so right
He was an ego in the night
In the night

And the way he wears his hair Sure to make the women stare And the game plays he knows As the passing ego flows

He was an ego in the night He was an ego in the night
