

Hollywood

Suzi Quatro

She packed her bags one moonlit night
Bought a ticket on a mystery flight
To a heaven where dreamers dream
To a hell where losers weep
She's gone to Hollywood

Bright yellow letters shine way up high
Sweet sixteen she's got stars in her eyes
Will she drive in chauffeur driven cars
Or will she die of a broken heart
She's gone to Hollywood, oh Hollywood

Down the boulevard of devil's delight
She walks the streets under neon lights
So much to do don't know where to begin
So much to see in the city of sin
She's in Hollywood, oh Hollywood, oh it feels so good

Hi ya mama how are ya dad
Been thinkin 'bout ya please don't be sad
You'll never guess where I'm callin from
I'll be a star before too long
Cuz I'm in Hollywood, oh Hollywood oh it feels so good
A star in Hollywood

Long distance ringin in the middle of the night
Sayin somethin 'bout a suicide
Missin persons callin from the coast
Your daughter's dead from an overdose
Hollywood, she died in Hollywood
Oh she felt so good, a star in Hollywood
Now she's in heavenwood
Oh she was good, a star in Hollywood
