

No Choice

Suzi Quatro

A painted portrait on a wall, stolen moments in a hall conversation no one heard, inspiration with no words where lighting strikes is no one's guess you rocked my world with your caress and winds of change are bound to blow as cupid fire his fatal arrow and if I can believe in déjà vu, and love at first sight, then you can you
I need to know, can this be real, when hearts deny.
Whats they can't reveal how could I know, sweet words betray, cuz once I fell you simply turned and walked away

No choice, how can say, whose life is it anyway?
no choice, your voice, say goodbye to yesterday two can play that game, every move you make I'll give it back to you
No Choice, how can say, whose life is it anyway?
my choice, my voice, time to do it my way it's my life, I'm gonna fight till the fight is through

As a camera's rolled we played the game and felt lust heat ignite this flame A crowded room, empty and still, silent vows we must fulfil like children caught up in the play, our defences fall away all exposed the deed is done, a lovers dance has now begun yes, it's never too late to take a chance cuz life is not live without romance
I Need to know, can this be real, when hearts deny Whats they can't reveal
how could I know, sweet words betray, cuz once I fell
you simply turned and walked away

No choice, how can say, whose life is it anyway?
no choice, your voice, say goodbye to yesterday
two can play that game, every move you make I'll give it back to you
No choice, how can say, whose life is it anyway?
my choice, my voice, time to do it my way
it's my life, I'm gonna fight till the fight is through
