

Sometimes Love Is Letting Go

Suzi Quatro

My mamma always told me, if you truly love me someone, don't hold on to tight, sometime love is letting go

Sometime love, is letting go you've fallen hard, even though he show you nothing, in return but you still give everything cuz you've yet to learn that if he's your, one day he'll know
sometime love, is letting go

You know my dad always told me, that men don't show their feelings easy, so I said, hey dad, the times I've seen you cry have been the most precious to me, some time love, is letting go o

and when you're scared scared to let you love show and so afraid, your heart will break just let it happen, for you heart sake sweet emotion you got to let if flow
sometime love, is letting go

And when I finally grew up, I fell in love, but it didn't last, we just didn't beyond together anymore, and I had to be strong and say to myself, hey girl, sometime love, is letting go

we are flying high, now I'm lying low in your arms like a stranger, you feel so cold the truth is plain, but rarely told you gotta stop saying yes, when you mean no and if he's your, one day he'll know sweet emotion, you gotta let if flow Sometime love, is letting go
