

Woman Cry

Suzi Quatro

I saw you standing on the corner
So provocative
Fired my imagination
Could this be all a dream I wonder
Is it love or infatuation
I stroll on over
Tap you on the shoulder
I said hey there, how ya doin'
Well I love the way you look
I love long legs
I like your style
When you move so fast

You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry)
A woman cry (You make a woman cry)
You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry)
Woman cry (You make a woman)
I feel a sensual devotion
Maybe second sight
Or maybe inner vision
Could you fill the canyons in my mind
I wonder do you need
Someone to believe in
Your presence causes such commotion
Oh I can't touch myself
Too hot to handle
Well I love the misery
love the game
I like the words
So provocative
You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry)
A woman cry (You make a woman cry)
You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry)
Woman cry (You make a woman)
If I get crazy in the middle of the night
It's because I need your arms to hold me tight
And if I tell that I don't need your love
You can be sure that I want love - woman cry
You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry)
A woman cry (You make a woman cry)
You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry)
Woman cry (You make a woman)
You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry)
A woman cry (You make a woman cry)
You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry)
Woman cry (You make a woman)
