Woman Cry

Suzi Quatro

I saw you standing on the corner So provocative Fired my imagination Could this be all a dream I wonder Is it love or infatuation I stroll on over Tap you on the shoulder I said hey there, how ya doin' Well I love the way you look I love long legs I like your style When you move so fast

You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry) A woman cry (You make a woman cry) You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry) Woman cry (You make a woman) I feel a sensual devotion Maybe second sight Or maybe inner vision Could you fill the canyons in my mind I wonder do you need Someone to believe in Your presence causes such commotion Oh I can't touch myself Too hot to handle Well I love the misery love the game I like the words So provocative You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry) A woman cry (You make a woman cry) You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry) Woman cry (You make a woman) If I get crazy in the middle of the night It's because I need your arms to hold me tight And if I tell that I don't need your love You can be sure that I want love - woman cry You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry) A woman cry (You make a woman cry) You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry) Woman cry (You make a woman) You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry) A woman cry (You make a woman cry) You make a woman cry (You make a woman cry) Woman cry (You make a woman)
