

Broken & Beautiful

Suzie McNeil

You fall apart and I run in from anywhere
Like cameras at an accident
My staring eyes, I wonder why I care
Maybe I'll be frightened by the pain
But watch your tragedy again

Chorus

'Cause you are broken and beautiful
And you're so damn cynical
But I'm drawn in by the darkness in your eyes
And it's beautiful
Broken and beautiful
Talkin' you down from ledges to stay with me
I'll touch your sharpest edges
I'll be the one that holds your hand when you bleed
Falling off in pieces like you do
I would hand them back to you

Chorus

My favorite mess, like a magnet pulling me down until I drop
Can be obsessed with your sadness but I don't want to make it stop

Chorus

And you're not like usual
And I'm drawn in by the darkness in your eyes
And it's beautiful
Broken and beautiful
