

Hung Up

Suzie McNeil

This is it, I've played every trick up my sleeve
And I'm tired of trying to believe,
I'm seeing something that's just not there
This is hard when you always have somewhere to be Somewhere but never with me
Have I been a fool to even think you cared cause your so hung up on yourself
Don't you know, can't you even tell
But tonight ill be fine
When I'm out with someone else
Your so hung up on yourself
I could stay fulfill your every desire
Provide everything you require
But ill go even though day after day
I look for a reason to stay
If only you could tell why I feel this way
cause your so hung up on yourself
Don't you know, can't you even tell
But tonight ill be fine
When I'm out with someone else
Your so hung up on yourself
Well you can't say nothing else
Never notice how I felt
All the things you never shared
Never cared when I was there
And all the times I thought you cared
This is it, I've played every trick up my sleeve
And I'm tired of trying to believe
In you and me
well your so hung up on yourself
Don't you know, can't you even tell
But tonight ill be fine
When I'm out with someone else ya your so hung up on your self
Don't you know can't you even tell
Well tonight you'll be fine when I'm out with someone else
Your so hung up on yourself
