

So In Love

Suzie McNeil

Being alone wouldn't make me feel more lonely (don't know)
I'd sell my soul for a cigarette and one good night's sleep
Why do I feel beautiful in someone else's eyes (don't know baby
)

Why do I feel worthless when no one's told me in a while?

So in love
There's is only so much
Can't be with you
Can't live without you
Baby there's never enough
When you're so, so in love

Baby I drink to freedom and lovin' and a smile oh yeah
Cause I haven't been the reason for one of those in quite a while
Cause i would give anything to have some piece of mind
Because there ain't no price that is too high for me
Yeah yeah yeah

So in love
There's is only so much
Can't be with you
Can't live without you
Baby it's never enough
When you're so, so in love

When you need a shoulder to cry on
And you got no one to rely on
But that can change cause there ain't no rules to this game
And even if there were I would break them just the same

So in love
There's only so much
Can't be with you
Can't live without you
Baby it's never enough

So in love
There's only so much
Can't be with you
Can't live without you
Baby it's is never enough
A shoulder to cry on, someone to rely on
Maybe that's asking too much
When you're so, so in love
