

How Come You Go To Her

Suzy Bogguss

Baby, what has she got?
Baby, what's she do?
What is this power she has over you?
How come you go to her?

What keeps you running to her door?
Ain't no way that she could love you more
How come you go to her?

Ain't I got the looks, ain't I got the charm
Ain't I got this heart so true
You said it was heaven in my arms
So how come they ain't holding you

Is it 'cause I scare you?
Is it 'cause she don't?
'Cause I could win your heart
And you know she won't
How come you go to her?

Ain't I got the looks, ain't I got the charm
Ain't I got this heart so true
You said it was heaven in my arms
So how come they ain't holding you

All of the good love
You could ever want
You could get right here, darling
But you don't
How come you go to her?

How come you go to her?
How come, how come
You go, you go to her?
