

You Never Will

Suzy Bogguss

Sun comes creepin'
Chasin' away
Shadows of last night
You're still sleeping, I'm facing
The day
Things look so different in the light

Someday you're gonna love me
I'll see it in your eyes
When I held you in the darkness
I could believe those lies
Now the sun is up it's morning
And you don't love me still
It finally dawned on me, you never will

Look at you, how real it all seems
I still feel your touch
But I'm through believin' this dream
I guess I'm finally wakin' up

Someday you're gonna love me
I'll see it in your eyes
When I held you in the darkness
I could believe those lies
Now the sun is up it's morning
And you don't love me still
It finally dawned on me, you never will

Hold on you said hold on
But there's no use in crying when it's done
Another day has just begun

Now the sun is up, it's morning
And you don't love me still
It finally dawned on me, you never will
