

What You Get... Is What You See

Swan Lee

I saw a boy in need
He couldn't rescue me
And what was in his heart
It drove us so apart

How did we get so far
How could we ruin love
The only thing I know
Is that there's no more you and me

Come into my arms now
You are gonna change now
Everytime I break free
What you get is what you see

How did you change so fast
Why did we choose this path
The only for sure
You've turned this battle into a war

Come into my arms now
You are gonna change now
Everytime I break free
What you get is what you see
Everytime you look at me
