Better Than You

I'm so glad I'm better than you
I'm so glad I'm better than you are
I'm so glad I'm better than you
I'm so glad I'm better than you are

Sit here. Now look in the mirror Something's wrong, your face is distorted Feel the flow: there's blood in your body And you can see clearly every heartbeat you make

Close your eyes, touch your mouth in the mirror That's the wound that is made where the past meets the future I'm so glad I'm better than you I'm so glad I'm better than you are

I can see clearly through this veil of reality And I can remember the feel of your skin No, you never knew me and you never will When nothing's there, nothing is concealed

I'm so glad I'm better than you I'm so glad I'm better than you are I'm so glad I'm better than you I'm so glad I'm better than you are Swans
