

Killing For Company

Swans

I couldn't stop myself
I knew I'd do it again
But I could heal myself
If I could feel your skin
And if I comprehend this moment
I know we'll live again
And if I heal your wound
We will make love again
And now we're slipping through
This millennium
We should feel sorry for the people
And can I kiss your skin?
And there's hunger in the desert
And missiles in the sky
And every soul is interwoven
Before the wrong or right

I know we'll live again
Though it's just a feeling
I know we'll never end
I'll keep you company

I'll keep you company
I'll keep you company
I'll keep you company
I'll keep you company
