Killing For Company

I couldn't stop myself I knew I'd do it again But I could heal myself If I could feel your skin And if I comprehend this moment I know we'll live again And if I heal your wound We will make love again And now we're slipping through This millennium We should feel sorry for the people And can I kiss your skin? And there's hunger in the desert And missiles in the sky And every soul is interwoven Before the wrong or right

I know we'll live again Though it's just a feeling I know we'll never end I'll keep you company

I'll keep you company I'll keep you company I'll keep you company I'll keep you company
