In separate sections,
The bodies fall.
The leaves are purple,
The grass is red.
I love your music.
I love your style.
The light inside you
Leaks through your eyes.
Na na na na...

The golden liquid
That washed your face,
Contain my secrets
And bitter taste.
I love your music.
I love your throat.
The light inside me
Feeds like a golden rope.
Na na na na...

And I alone, See through your eyes. And I alone, Will never die. And I alone, Can taste your hand. And I alone, Am sanctified. And I alone, Can smell your hair. And I alone, Feed you the air. And I alone, Can steal steal your breath, And I alone, Prevent your death. And I alone, Am not alone. And I alone, Am not alone... Na na na na na...

It's the sun
It's the sun
Sh-sh-shining
Sh-sh-shining...
Shhhh...
