

Too Much Talking

Sweet

Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know
Let you thinking do the walking
Too much talking
Too much talking
Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know

Don't sell your story like a preacher
Together glory in their eyes
Do what you can, to understand
You know you can you do
No matter how long or what your going through

Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know
Let you thinking do the walking
Too much talking
Too much talking
Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know

Why do you try to be the teacher
Of all the reaches for the sky
Do what you can to understand
You know you can you do
No matter how long or what your going through

Too much talking
Too much talking
Too much talking
Too much
Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know
Let you thinking through your walking
Too much talking
Too much talking
