

Brown Haired Boy

Sweetbox

One day summer afternoon
Just me nothing much to do
Then he swayed on by me
Brown hair and a wicked body
No words 'cause he was shy
I winked and just said hi
He laughed 'cause he was speechless
You're cute, you wanna come with me
I said come here, move a little closer
Leave me breathless tuggin' on my hips he said
Mmmm mmmmm mmmmm mmmm
My little brown haired boy
All day and then all night
I kissed and loved him right
I showed him a few tricks
Gave him more than a first kiss
He saw my tan lines
Found out how to have a good time
I sure miss that boy's hips
Still smell and taste his sweet lips
So I like to have a little fun
I've always been a real wild one
And I know that you really like it that way
Years later on subway train I heard a sly voice whisper my name
And lips that felt familiar gently went and kissed my shoulders
And I said: well, boy isn't this a surprise, I never thought I' d see your brown eyes
Where you been 'cause I've learned a whole lot since then.
