

Coming Home To You

Sweetbox

Here I am in another place
Another city, another plane
A different story, a different face
Wherever I go

But I see you in every crowd
Hear your voice I can't keep it out
Feel you breathe like you're all around
Cause I miss you so...

And I know you cry
And it hurts me too
Not a day goes by
That I don't think of you

I know I'm so far away now
We will get through it somehow
Cause I miss you the same way too
I'll always be coming home to you

Baby you don't need to worry
Cause I'll be there in a hurry
I miss you the same way too
And that is why I'm coming home to you
Coming home to you
Baby, I'm coming home
I'm coming home
I'm coming home to you

It's when I lie here alone at night
Without you right here by my side
Picturing how we talked about just anything
That's when I find it hard to sleep
That's when it really hits me deep
That's when I feel so incomplete
And I'm lost within

And it's hard to try
To try and hide the pain
But I'll be alright
When I see you once again

Baby, you don't have to worry
I'll be there in a hurry
Cause I miss you the same way too
I'll always be coming home to you
Baby, I'm coming home
I'm coming home
I'm coming home to you

Baby I'll need something to hold onto, yeh yeh
Feels like we've been waiting forever
Counting the days
Counting the nights

When I'd be coming home to you

I know I'm so far away
We will get through it somehow
Cause I miss you the same way too
I'm coming home to you
