

Falling

Sweetbox

I was falling, falling
I was running, running
You're just crawling, crawling
You're just hiding from it
I was falling, falling
I was running, running
You're just crawling, crawling
You're just hiding from it
It's a shame
That you live on the safe side
It's a shame you hate to cry
It's a shame that you're not fighting to get more
It's a shame
That you're scared to take a chance
It's a shame you never dance
It's a shame you wanna live behind closed doors
I was falling, falling
I was running, running
You're just crawling, crawling
You're just hiding from it
I was falling, falling
I was running, running
You're just crawling, crawling
You're just hiding from it
It's a shame
That you're afraid of getting hurt
You only learn by getting burnt
It's a shame you wanna stand outside the fire
It's a shame
That you think that I'm a fool
'Cause I don't live with rules
It's a shame you'll never get to understand
I was falling, falling
I was running, running
You're just crawling, crawling
You're just hiding from it
I was falling, falling
I was running, running
You're just crawling, crawling
You're just hiding from it
You think that it's weak not to resist
And you don't live your life you just exist
But I won't be the one outside the fire
And I won't be the one that's scared to fly
I wanna live my life not merely just survive
Ooh
