

For The Lonely

Sweetbox

This is for the lonely
This is for the lonely
Sometimes I feel
I wished on the wrong star
'cause I always seem so far from the one that i dream of its hard to wait for love
But I'll make it on my own
'cause I'm learning to be strong
Memories of standing all alone
This is for the lonely
This is for the lonely
We all live underneath the same blue sky
This is for the lonely ones tonight
I'll help you find a way
To hold on
At night I pray
But no one's by my side
My tears they go unheard
I look for the words
To raise my heart
For now I'll say this prayer
That somehow, some day, somewhere
I will turn around and find love standing there
This is for the lonely
This is for the lonely
We all live underneath the same blue sky
This is for the lonely ones tonight
I'll help you find a way
To hold on
This is for the lonely
This is for the lonely
We all live underneath the same blue sky
All my tears they go unheard
'cause no one's by my side
It's hard to be alone
It's hard to wait for love
Oh, yeah oh oh
Lonely, hey yeah yeah
This is for the lonely ones tonight
I'll help you find a way
To hold on
This is for the lonely
This is for the lonely
We all live underneath the same blue sky
To hold on
