Heartbreaker

Heartbreaker yeah

V1

You're looking at me like I should care

You're heading my way, oh don't you dare

Don't think you can handle me

Cause I invented your silly game

So you wanna talk and buy me a drink

Wanna know what I do and hear how I think

Oh please player, give me a break

Cause all your sleaze is too much to take (yeah)

CHORUS

I know you think that you're a heartbreaker

I know you think that you're a love maker

I gotta tell you all that I've had better

You're never gonna break this heart of mine, no no

Heartbreaker

Heartbreaker

Heartbreaker (heartbreaker)

Heartbreaker

Heartbreaker

Heartbreaker (heartbreaker)

V2

Is there something new for me today?

Or the same old shit I hear every day

Oh, just say goodbye and move on

Cause all your crap doesn't turn me on, no no

CHORUS 2

I know you think that you're a heartbreaker

(heartbreaker)

I know you think that you're a love maker (oh I know you do)

I gotta tell you all that I've had better (yes, I have)

You're never gonna break this heart of mine, no no

BRIDGE

There you go with the same old games

You change your clothes, but it's always the same

I can't stand that look on your face

You'd do anything to get laid

Heartbreaker...
