Do you still remember when you promised me the perfect love And I gave you everything and still you said it wasn $\square$ t enough When you hit me verbally put me on my knees and blamed it on me And I $\square$ d swallow it down

I let you break my wings chose to become your caged up bird Ate your bull shit promises and cherished every fucking word Now like a freedom phoenix burning from a rising sun Here is my vindication

Alright, okay

You□re gonna get a taste of my heartbreak Right now, today

 $I\square m$  gonna make you regret all your dirty ways Alright, okay

You□re gonna get a taste of my heartbreak Right now, today

IDm gonna make you become my human sacrifice

Let  $\square$ s go back into the time you stained my heart like merlot wi ne

 ${\rm Didn}\Box {\rm t}$  care if I was sick you left me alone to cry and die Your human sacrifice alone in your church of love and lies I did not forget

 $I\square m$  back with ammunition on a mission that will make you pay Back with a bazooka and a bullet where I wrote your name Risen up from the ashes ready for my justice day Here I come for you
