

So Damned

Sweetbox

The first time that I saw you I fell right to the floor
I heard your body calling and I wanted to explore
Every way you touched me just left me wanting more
And now I have to wonder what all my love was for
What happened to my fairy tale
You shot it all to hell

Because I saw you with your bitch
I'm just so damn pissed
Now that she's the one you hit
I'm just so damned
Player you thought you had me fooled
But I'll rewrite the rules
Because I saw you with your bitch
I'm just so damn pissed

Her legs can wrap around you and can rock you like one can
And wait until she finds out you're just a minute man
What goes around comes back and I can't wait until your turn
Because one day you'll be assed on and I'm the one who'll know
What happened to my fairy tale
You shot it all to hell

Because I saw you with your bitch
I'm just so damn pissed
Now that she's the one you hit
I'm just so damned
Player you thought you had me fooled
But I'll rewrite the rules
Because I saw you with your bitch
I'm just so damn pissed

Every night you scream her name
Say I love you without shame
And don't tell her you'll do the same
Because to you it's one big game
I refuse to let this pain
Keep on running through my veins
My revenge is in the air
Close your eyes and say your prayers

Because I saw you with your bitch
I'm just so damn pissed
Now that she's the one you hit
I'm just so damned
Player you thought you had me fooled
But I'll rewrite the rules
Because I saw you with your bitch
I'm just so damn pissed

Because I saw you with your bitch
I'm just so damn pissed
Now that she's the one you hit
I'm just so damned
Player you thought you had me fooled
But I'll rewrite the rules
Because I saw you with your bitch

I'm just so damn pissed
