

Waterfall

Sweetbox

I'm your own Mary Madglene
And your cross is the one I'll be carrying Watching over you
I'm always watching you
I know you think that my heads a bit unbalanced
But you don't see I'm just rising to the challenge
Cause you don't understand
After all you're just man
Waterfall
Waterfall
You belong to me
You will belong to me
Sitting my car watching you
Throw windows panes
They say it's sick
But true lovers know no shame
I need to see your face
I'm your guardian
Your twisted angel
The open arms
That were right behind you when you fell
I know you'll take my hand
Waterfall
Waterfall
You belong to me
You will belong to me
I told you I'd be watching you
In everything that you do
Don't worry now cause I'll Take care of you
Mmm mmm mmm
Mmm mmm mmm
Waterfall
Waterfall
You belong to me
You will belong to me
