

She wanna move around and hold onto the dreams that she's dream in'
she wanna lose the frown and turn it upside down, and start liv
in'

Ah ah ah, don't blame the time on your wrist
for not doing what makes you tick.
Don't blame the clock on the wall for running round
with nothing at all

So I say oh oh baby
Take your feet out your shoes and go crazy
Don't just dream in your sleep it's just lazy
Are we having a fight, or are we dazing?
Baby

I wanna go down south and hold onto your feelings lately
I wanna hear you growl but who's gonna be there to save me

Ah ah ah, don't blame the time on your wrist
for not doing what makes you tick.
Don't blame the clock on the wall for running round
with nothing at all

So I say oh oh baby
Take your feet out your shoes and go crazy
Don't just dream in your sleep it's just lazy
Are we having a fight, or are we dazing?
Baby

Don't just dream in your sleep it's just lazy
Don't just dream in your sleep it's just lazy
Don't just dream in your sleep it's just lazy
Don't just dream in your sleep it's just lazy
