

Listen here, pretty girl
I'd hate to see you down on your knees
Listen here, you pretty girl
I swear there's something else to feel

You'll never be a part of what I want
You'll never be a part of what I need
Whatever you want is whatever you see
Whatever you feel is whatever you lose

Yeah yeah yeah, yeah yeah yeah

You're sippin' on a dream all around here
You never seem to hear what I hear
You're always so, unpredictable
It's like I have to guess what I hear

Listen here, pretty girl
I'd love to see you down on your knees
Listen here, you pretty girl
I swear there's nothing else to feel

You'll never be a part of what I want
You'll never be a part of what I need
Whatever you want is whatever you see
Whatever you feel is whatever you tease

Yeah yeah yeah, yeah yeah yeah
You're sippin' on a dream all around here
You never seem to hear with your ears
You're always so, unpredictable
It's like I have to guess what I hear guess what I hear

I took off,
I took off yeah
She came screaming,
she didn't wanna seem misleading

You'll never see what I see
You'll never be what I dream
You'll never see what I see yeah
You'll never be what I dream
